I would have loved to play!

John 13:33-35 "My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and yet you will not see me. And yet you will see me, and yet you will not believe in me. I am going, you cannot come. 34 "A new command I give you. Love one another. All who love one another will love me, and he who does not love me will not love the Father who has sent me. 35 The Father will love me, because I have laid down my life for the world."

Romans 12:10 Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor one another above yourselves.

1. You are part of the Bride of Christ

You are becoming something in Christ

Ephesians 5:25-30

Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her 26 to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, 27 and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless.

In this same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. 29 After all, no one ever hated his own body, but he feeds and cares for it, just as Christ does the church-- 30 for we are members of his body.

Jesus cares about the church.
It matters to him.

Acts 20:28

Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood.

2. You are part of the Body of Christ

you have a part to play

1 Corinthians 12:12-13

Just as the body is one and has many parts, yet is one body, so Christ's church is one and has many members, yet is one church. We are all part of this church, and we are all members of this church. We are all part of the Body of Christ, and we are all members of the Body of Christ.

1 Corinthians 12:27

Now you are the body of Christ, each one of you, members of his body, of his flesh and of his bones. You will be built together to be a dwelling in which God will live with you. And together you will be growing into him who is the head, the church, which he himself saves with his blood through the word of his message.

Now you are the body of Christ, each one of you, members of his body, of his flesh and of his bones. You will be built together to be a dwelling in which God will live with you. And together you will be growing into him who is the head, the church, which he himself saves with his blood through the word of his message.

1 Corinthians 12:14-27

Now the body is not made up of one part but of many. 15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. 16 And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? 18 But in fact God has arranged the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be. 19 If they were all one part, where would the body be? 20 As it is, there are many parts, but one body. 21 The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you!" And the head cannot say to the feet, "I don't need you!"...

1 Corinthians 12:14-27 con't

...On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, 23 and the parts that we think are less honorable we treat with special honor. And the parts that are unpresentable are treated with special modesty, 24 while our presentable parts need no special treatment. But God has combined the members of the body and has given greater honor to the parts that lacked it, 25 so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other. 26 If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it. 27 ¶ Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.
