PSALM 16 (Psalm 2:12)

- 1 Preserve me, O God, for to you I take refuge. Promise
- 2 I said to YHWH, "You are my LORD. Faith without you I have nothing good."
- 3 To the holy ones who are in the land, "They are the glorious ones in whom is all my delight!" Faithfulness
- 4 Many are the tribes of those that exchange you for another god. I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood nor lift their names on my lips.

- 9 Therefore my heart is happy and my flesh abounds; yes, my flesh dwells in security.
- 10 For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol nor give up your holy one to see decay.
- 11 You make known to me the path of life; there is joy in plenty before your face. Since there are pleasures at your side forevermore.

What does it mean?

- The Christ would rise from the dead
- Jesus is the Christ, the Son, and therefore Lord/King
- David would rise from the dead
- Everyone would rise from the dead
- Forgiveness of sins is offered to everyone

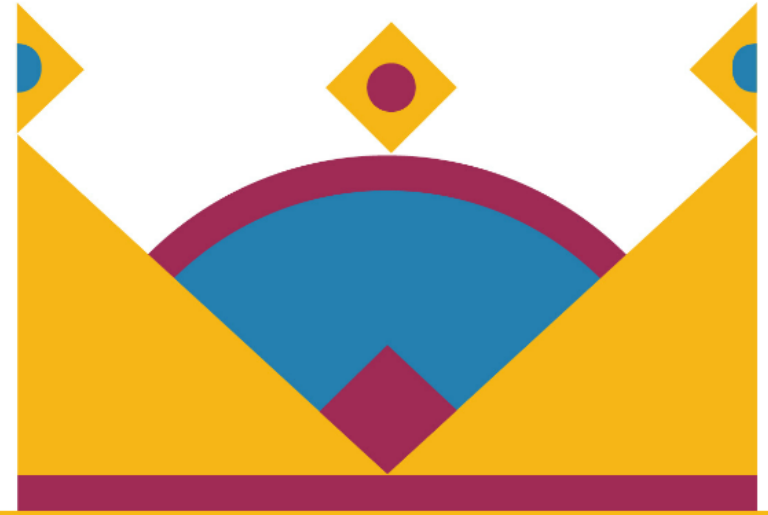

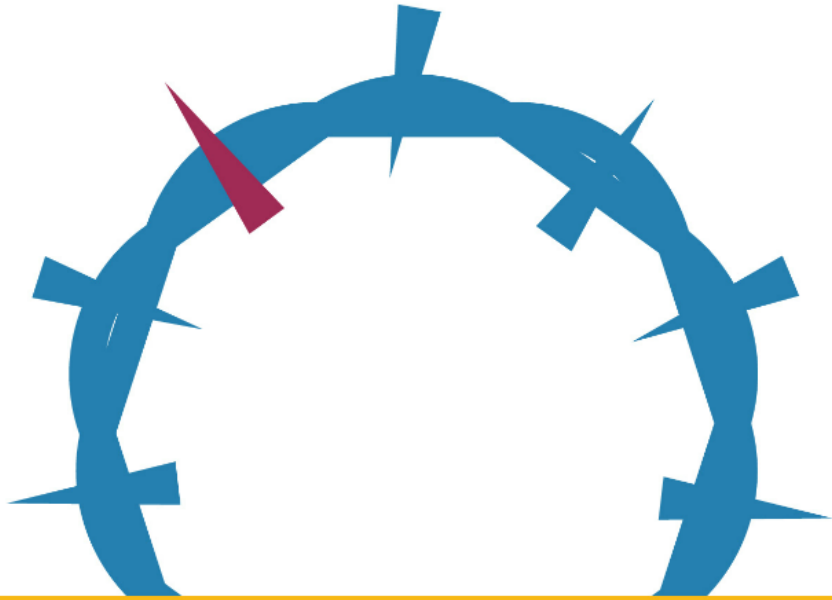

Acts 13:38-39
Let it be known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, and by him everyone who believes is freed from everything from which you could not be freed by the law of Moses.

Even my joy rejoices in your security.
