Why doesn't God step in and do what we want?

The Emotional Objectives:
Why do we feel this way?

The Daily Decision...

A still from the movie 'The Accused' featuring Tom Cruise as the prosecutor. He is standing in a courtroom, looking directly at the camera with a determined expression. He is wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and dark tie. In the background, a man in a military-style uniform stands at attention, and other people are seated at desks. The text 'I WANT THE TRUTH' is overlaid in large, bold, white capital letters at the bottom of the image.

Ephesians 3:8-11

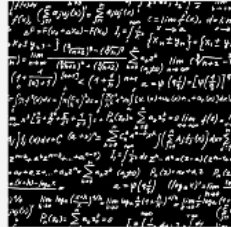

Although I am less than the least of all God's people, this grace was given me: to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, and to make plain to everyone the administration of this mystery, which for ages past was kept hidden in God, who created all things. His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms, according to his eternal purpose which he accomplished in Christ

Romans 8:18-23

I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. The creation waits in eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed. For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies.
