

So how do we summarize a Christ-centered Identity and Mentality?

I've done two book-length summaries

What about just a few sayings that set the right "ethos" or mental culture?

You are a steward
Convictionally embrace the identity and mindset of a steward

1. A Steward is someone that owns nothing, but governs everything.

2. Stewards are free from the Law
You are NOT AN AUDITOR, you are AN INVESTOR.

3. Stewardship is a role, not a standing.
Slaves that are sons, and friends.

4. Stewardship is your identity in Christ.
(because it is Jesus' identity too)

1 Thessalonians 2:2-5

We had previously suffered and been insulted in Philippi, as you know, but with the help of our God we dared to tell you his gospel in spite of strong opposition. For the appeal we make does not spring from error or impure motives, nor are we trying to trick you.

On the contrary, we speak as men approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel. We are not trying to please men but God, who tests our hearts. You know we never used flattery, nor did we put on a mask to cover up greed—God is our witness.

British System: "Ministers" "Trusts"

Modern Trusts: Manager, Governess/nanny, Mentor...

Old English:

Stig "hall"

Old Saxon/German:

Warder "guard"

Stigward = Steward (14th cent.)

Genesis 39:4-6

Joseph found favor in his eyes and became his attendant. Potiphar put him in charge of his household, and he entrusted to his care everything he owned. From the time he put him in charge of his household and of all that he owned, the LORD blessed the household of the Egyptian because of Joseph. The blessing of the LORD was on everything Potiphar had, both in the house and in the field. So he left in Joseph's care everything he had; with Joseph in charge, he did not concern himself with anything except the food he ate.

If I "govern everything",
how am I supposed to govern?!?!?
